CHARLESTON (S.C.)

JUN 1 6

1960

NEWS affitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75

61,125 Circ.: m 71,547 5.

STATINTL

Edit Front Page Page

JUN 16 1990 Engineers Corps Plans Fete Tonight

Approximately 125 Corps of En-Lysaght and Alex St. Amend. attend a "Corps Day Party" to Hendley M. Saunders, the Corps of Engineers, which was E. Wiles and Henry M. Wilson. born during the American Revolution.

14 employes.

formance in one or more of their ligence Azency field section at major duties will be Rene E. Cauette, construction inspector.

Cauette, construction inspector.

Cauette, Construction inspector.

Co-chairmen to the celebration Charleston Air Force Base res- are Mrs. Wilma Adams, Mrs. Helident office; Edward G. Lightle, en Evans, Dudley Phillips and civil engineer and electrical Lawrence Kennerty. The Charleston District, Corps of and Mrs. Erma R. Horton, clerk Engineers, is a part of the Corps' and general stenographer, Charleston Air Force Base resident of-

go to J. Allen Hicks, Joseph A. mately $10 million a year.

gineer employes in the Charles- Twenty year awards will go to ton District have been invited to Miss Charlotte H. Lynah and Twenty year awards will go to.

day at the Means Clubhouse in St. Andrew's Parish.
Today is the 185th anniversary of don, Robert V. Royall, Ransom

Earl H. Eubanks will be recognized at the party for an outstand-A reception will begin at 7 p.m. ing performance appraisal and A buffet dinner will follow.

Col. J. R. Thompson, district performance based on a 12 month engineer, will make awards to period. Mr. Eubanks was chief of 14 employes.

Receiving sustained, superior performance awards for six months or more of superior performance in the supply division and also served as supply and procure-months or more of superior performance in the supply division and also served as supply and procure-months of more of superior performance. months or more of superior per- ington, D. C., in a Central Intel-

The Charleston District, Corps of South Atlantic Division, which has headquarters in Atlanta. The district supervises military and civil Thirty year service awards will works projects that total approxi-